Vacation Packing List

Hey there friend,

Don't you just LOVE going on vacation? I know I do for sure. I look forward to a break from my routine. Spending time with my family or friends. Without out the to-do lists and regular things that need to get done.

One of my greatest fears is that I will forget something. Which is kinda crazy cause I can always go to the store and buy what I forgot, right?

Unless I am going to Africa...I think I can find what I need on vacation. It's just that I really don't want to take a break from my vacation and go find what I forgot. Now, you might just LOVE going shopping

Anyway, to help me, and you, out - I created this 'Vacation Packing List'.

There is always SO much to get done before vacation. We are cramming so many additional tasks into an already overflowing plate!

Scrambling to get all the supplies needed. Laundry. Ironing.

Finding the suitcases and airing them out. Making sure that bathing suits still fit, water shoes can be found. New and un-expired sunscreen purchased.

It's like the NEVER ending list. As I am working hard to get it all organized, and sometimes wonder if it is worth it, I keep my eye on the prize. The VACATION.

I created 2 styles for you. The checklist is my fave. I write the items on the left and each time I go on vacation I check them off.

HINT: Write the items in and then make copies BEFORE you start checking things off...then you only have to write them one time.

In the meantime - enjoy your vacation!
